What We Learn...

The ART of TEACHING Program:

In order to foster teaching excellence, the Cotsen Foundation for the ART of TEACHING offers two-year fellowships to groups of 5-7 teachers at selected schools. These teachers work with an assigned mentor for a minimum of 2 hours each week in an ongoing effort to improve their craft. The ART of TEACHING fellowship consists of several key components.

Math: Cognitively Guided Instruction (CGI)

From Heinemann publishing:

“Cognitively Guided Instruction (CGI) is a student-centered approach to teaching math. It starts with what your students already know and builds on their natural number sense and intuitive approaches to problem solving. Rather than a math program or curriculum, CGI is a way of listening to students, asking smart questions, and engaging with their thinking—all with the goal of uncovering and expanding every student's mathematical understanding.”
