SOUTH BAY CLASSIC

FRIDAY AUGUST 2, 2019
LOS VERDES GOLF COURSE

The South Bay Classic Golf Tournament is dedicated to raising funds to help the youth of the South Bay community deal with the social pressures of adolescence by supporting prevention, education and counseling programs. Proceeds from this charitable event are used to support 9 South Bay City School Districts. These essential programs provide South Bay youth with positive opportunities for growth and development, so they can realize their full potential. And to give you an idea of how very important the South Bay Classic is in their lives, proceeds from it directly affect over 36,000 youth and indirectly impact another 109,000 annually. Since it's inception, the South Bay Classic has given $2.6 million to the following Districts:

- El Segundo Unified School District
- Hawthorne School District
- LAUSD Local District South
- Lawndale Elementary School District
- Manhattan Beach Unified School District
- Palos Verdes Peninsula Unified School District
- Redondo Beach Unified School District
- Torrance Unified School District
- Wiseburn Unified School District

And in addition to helping our schools and communities, your participation in this event will include food, gifts, prizes, and a great day of golf. So sign up today. You'll be helping South Bay Children build a better future while you get the day off to play. How can anyone lose?
